RESOLUTION NO. 2025- 17

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NEWPORT BEACH, CALIFORNIA, REVISING AND ADOPTING FEES WITHIN THE SCHEDULE OF RENTS, FINES AND FEES

WHEREAS, Section 3.36.010 (Findings) of the Newport Beach Municipal Code ("NBMC") provides that services and programs that primarily benefit a person requesting the service are traditionally funded in whole, or in part, from fees charged to the person requesting the service;

WHEREAS, Subsection (C) of Section 3.36.010 (Findings) of the NBMC provides that to ensure fees charged for services are an accurate reflection of costs, the City should conduct a fee study at least once every five years;

WHEREAS, Subsection (A) of Section 3.36.030 (Cost Recovery Percentages) of the NBMC provides that the cost recovery percentage appropriate for each user service shall be one hundred percent (100%), unless the amount is modified by Exhibit A to Section 3.36.030 (Cost Recovery Percentages) of the NBMC;

WHEREAS, Subsection (B) of Section 3.36.030 (Cost Recovery Percentages) of the NBMC provides that the City Council shall establish, by resolution, the actual fee or charge for each user service based upon the actual cost of providing the user service;

WHEREAS, Subsection (C) of Section 3.36.030 (Cost Recovery Percentages) of the NBMC provides that the City Council may, by resolution, modify the amount of fee or charge upon a determination that there has been an increase or decrease in one or more cost factors relevant to the calculation of the actual cost of providing the service;

WHEREAS, in 2022, the City retained Clearsource Financial Consulting ("Consultant") to prepare the cost allocation plan and cost-of-services studies for the City on a rotating basis by department;

WHEREAS, for the 2024 to 2025 fiscal year (FY 2024-25), the consultant prepared cost-of-service studies for the City's Library and Recreation and Senior Services Departments as well as for certain other City departments upon their request ("Cost Studies");

WHEREAS, statutory fees are mandated or capped by another authority, such as the state;

WHEREAS, changes in the Consumer Price Index ("CPI") are from the current period of February of the prior year to February of the current year;

WHEREAS, full cost recovery of increased short-term lodging permit fees for initial applications and renewals, as established by Resolution No. 2024-29, will be fully phased in with full cost recovery effective FY 2025-26; and

WHEREAS, the City Council desires to adopt a modified Schedule of Rents, Fines and Fees ("SRFF") that reflects: (i) revised rental rates, fines, and fees (collectively "charges") in accordance with the Cost Studies to reflect changes in the costs-of-service; (ii) new charges applicable to the library lecture hall and other miscellaneous new charges; and, (iii) adjustments for changes in CPI.

NOW, THEREFORE, the City Council of the City of Newport Beach resolves as follows:

Section 1: The City Council does hereby adopt the modified SRFF, including all "FY25/26 Fee" amounts, as set forth in Exhibit 1, which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Section 2: The charges listed in the modified SRFF shall remain at the "FY24/25 Fee" amounts through June 30, 2024, shall be set at the "FY 25/26 Fee" amounts effective July 1, 2025, and thereafter shall be adjusted for CPI in accordance with this resolution.

Section 3: All new rents, fines, and fees set forth in the SRFF shall have an implementation date of July 1, 2025, and thereafter shall be adjusted for CPI in accordance with this resolution.

Section 4: Direct pass through, actual, and statutory fees in the SRFF may be updated by the Finance Director as necessary to ensure recovery of all cost, without further action by the City Council.

Section 5: The City Council hereby reaffirms all CPI adjustments to the SRFF that have been implemented prior to the adoption of this resolution.

Section 6: All charges within the SRFF that are subject to CPI adjustment shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the percentage change from February of the prior year to February of the current year, as it may be prorated from the approval date of charge, in the cost of doing business measured by the CPI. CPI shall mean the Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim, CA Area, All Urban Consumers, All Items, Base Period (1982-84=100), or successor index, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics. The automatic CPI adjustments to charges shall occur annually for three consecutive years, following the date the charges take effect. After the third consecutive annual CPI adjustment, automatic CPI adjustments shall cease until the charge is updated and adopted, upon which automatic CPI adjustments will resume the following year. For charges listed in the SRFF that are not adjusted by a separate resolution, automatic CPI adjustments shall occur on July 1 of the year following their adoption date and thereafter occur annually indefinitely. This adjustment shall not apply to any fee that is subject to Proposition 218 (California Constitution Articles XIIC and XIID and California Government Code Section 53750).

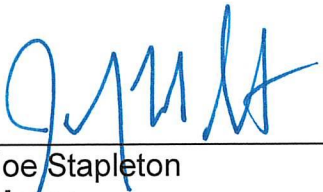

Section 7: The recitals provided in this resolution are true and correct and are incorporated into the operative part of this resolution.

Section 8: If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this resolution is, for any reason, held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of the remaining portions of this resolution. The City Council hereby declares that it would have passed this resolution, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase hereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 9: The City Council finds the adoption of this resolution is not subject to the California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") pursuant to Sections 15060(c)(2) (the activity will not result in a direct or reasonably foreseeable indirect physical change in the environment) and 15060(c)(3) (the activity is not a project as defined in Section 15378) of the CEQA Guidelines, California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Division 6, Chapter 3, because it has no potential for resulting in physical change to the environment, directly or indirectly.

Section 10: This resolution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by the City Council, and the City Clerk shall certify the vote adopting the resolution.

ADOPTED this 29th day of April, 2025.

WHEREAS, pursuant to Government Code Section 66000, et seq. ("Mitigation Fee Act"), which governs the establishment of Development Impact Fees ("DIFs"), the City is duly authorized to impose DIFs for purposes of defraying all or a portion of the costs of public facilities related to new development occurring within the City;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Mitigation Fee Act, local agencies are required to make specific findings when imposing fees to mitigate impacts of development projects and ensure the fees are justified and used appropriately;

WHEREAS, Newport Beach will continue to experience additional development and expansion based on population and employment growth projections from the Southern California Association of Governments and as identified in the City's General Plan 6th Cycle Housing Element;

WHEREAS, new development, especially projects involving an addition or a change of use will increase demand for public services and the facilities required to deliver them;

WHEREAS, Assembly Bill 602 ("AB 602") amended the Mitigation Fee Act in 2021 and emphasized the need to adopt a DIF Nexus Study ("Nexus Study") at a public hearing prior to the adoption of any new or increased DIF;

WHEREAS, AB 602 requires in part that the Nexus Study identify the existing level of service for each public facility, identify new levels of service, include an explanation of why the new levels of service are more appropriate, and include information to support the required findings for adoption of new or increased DIFs;

WHEREAS, the City retained the professional services of Willdan Financial Services to prepare the required Nexus Study as set forth in Exhibit "A," which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference;

WHEREAS, the Nexus Study provides a quantified basis to support each DIF and the legal support for the required findings to justify the amount of each DIF, based on the level of service of public facilities, and the project burdens on those facilities caused by prospective development in the City;

WHEREAS, the City's Capital Improvement Program for Fiscal Year 2024-25 through 2029-30 and 2024 Facilities Financing Plan indicate the approximate location, size, time of availability, and cost estimates for all facilities or improvements to be financed by the City's DIFs;

Major Thoroughfare and Bridge Fee Program Frequently Asked Questions

April 2025

When are fees due? Can a builder pay the fees prior to pulling of a building permit to avoid an increase in the fee amount?

The fees are due at the time the permit for the building structure is issued. Fees should not be collected on preliminary permits such as grading or foundation permits. Fees should be paid to the TCA member agency issuing the permit. The fee rate applied is the rate in effect on the day of permit issuance. Fees cannot be paid prior to issuance of a permit to avoid a fee increase.

What are the criteria for determining whether a single family or multi-family rate is applicable for residential projects?

In 1992, the TCA adopted an interpretation of the Fee Program (Interpretation 92-1) which clarified the criteria for determining the correct category (single family or multi-family) for residential projects. A new structure generally is considered a residential unit if it contains spaces for living, sleeping, bathroom, and kitchen/ kitchen hookups (sink, stove/oven or hookups, dishwasher/ refrigerator space, etc.) Please contact the TCA if you have questions regarding classification of a structure as a residential unit.

When a new residential unit is added, or created from an existing structure, the two sets of criteria for classifying units (irrespective of zoning) are:

Single Family

- (1) Separate lot
- (2) Detached
- (3) 1,500 square feet or larger

Multi-Family

- (1) No separate lot
- (2) Attached
- (3) Less than 1,500 square feet

Individual units will be classified as “single family” if they exhibit two or more characteristics of that category, and units will be classified as “multi-family” if they exhibit two or more characteristics of that category.

The possibility exists, based on this method of categorizing units that both single family and multi-family units will occur within the same tract/development.

How are fees calculated for an Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU)?

Effective January 1, 2020, if an ADU is determined to be a residential unit (living space, bathroom, and kitchen, or kitchen hookups), and is 750 square feet or greater, then it should be classified and assessed fees at the multi-family residential rate in proportion to the existing primary dwelling unit. For example, if a single family dwelling is 1675 square feet and a new ADU of 850 square feet is proposed to be built, divide the square footage of the ADU by the square footage of the existing primary dwelling unit ($850 / 1675 = 0.507463$ at least six decimal points) and multiply this proportion times the current multi-family dwelling rate for the applicable zone to determine the fees due. If an ADU is less than 750 square feet, then fees are not due. If an ADU square footage is equal to or greater than the primary unit square footage, then the full multi-family dwelling rate should be used.

Is credit given for demolition of a structure?

Yes. Reconstruction of non-residential buildings on the same legal building site (although not necessarily in the same footprint) as the demolished structure are exempt from paying fees, provided the structure is the same square footage or less than the demolished structure. If the new non-residential structure is larger than the demolished structure, fees would be collected for the net square footage increase. Credit is given for demolition (by unit, not by square footage) of residential units (single or multi-family) on the same lot. Calculation of the demolition credit should use the rate applicable to the issue date of the new construction permit.

When are fees increased? What determines the amount of the fee increase?

The fees are currently increased by a fixed percentage on July 1st of each year. The percentages are:

Foothill/Eastern Areas of Benefit:	2.206%
San Joaquin Hills Areas of Benefit:	2.667%

How are fees charged for a hotel?

A hotel is assessed at the non-residential rate for the gross square feet, including each floor of multiple story buildings. A timeshare facility also is assessed at the non-residential rate for the gross square feet.

Are fees due for the addition of a building mezzanine?

Per the Fee Program, any expansion of a non-residential structure is subject to fees for the net increase of gross square feet.

Which projects are exempt from payment of fees?

Please consult the permitting agency and/or TCA to confirm if an exemption applies to your project. The following are examples of projects that may be exempt from fees.

- Projects that provide documentation of exemption from property taxes.
- On-site leasing offices and common structures in residential tracts such as a pool building, provided that the use is limited to residents.
- Governmental structures such as fire stations and schools, to the extent that they shall not be used for generating revenue or commercial purposes.
- Parking structures built for the parking of vehicles used for travel to and from the nonresidential development served by the structure. Fully enclosed (not open to the elements) square footage within non-residential parking structures is not exempt. Structures used for the repair, maintenance, cleaning, sale, rental or display of vehicles, or for the storage of vehicles at the site of the development, are not exempt.
- Structures that are permanently open to the elements – meaning that they do not have 4 walls, a door, and a roof (examples include gas station canopies, restaurant outdoor patio dining areas, etc.).

What about self-storage projects? How are the fees charged?

Fees are collected for the gross square feet of the project which includes all enclosed storage units. If there is a manager's residence on site, a residential fee (instead of non-residential fee) would be collected for that portion of the project. The criteria for classifying residential units would apply in determining whether the manager's residence was a single family or multi-family unit.

How should fees be calculated for a senior citizen housing project?

The only exception to the collection rules for senior housing is for congregate care projects. For example, senior apartments are charged at the multi-family rate; a convalescent hospital would be charged at the non-residential rates. A congregate care facility is a licensed community care facility offering long-term accommodations for senior citizens along with a full range of related services, such as a common dining area, doctor's office, beauty salon, administrative offices, exercise room, etc. For those projects that qualify under this definition, please refer to Fee Program Interpretation 87-1 or contact TCA for details.

If the congregate care facility is housed in a single-family structure, the project is subject to single family residential rates. Any future conversions of this type of facility to any other use shall be subject to full fee assessment at that time.

How does a builder appeal the fees?

The builder must pay the fees in protest and file an appeal to the Agencies' Chief Executive Officer (CEO) within ten (10) days following the date on which the fee is required to be paid. To file an appeal, the builder must send a petition and supporting evidence on why the fees were not due or how they were calculated incorrectly to the TCA Administrative Offices. The CEO will hear the appeal and issue a decision. Decisions of the CEO may be appealed to the Board of Directors.

What if there is an overpayment of fees?

The builder or the member agency needs to submit a request for repayment of fees. Documentation of the reason for the overpayment and copies of the receipt for the payment of fees must be submitted. The TCA will review the request and, if approved, will issue a refund check.

What if the permit expires and the builder comes in to renew it? Are fees due?

If a permit has expired, credit will be given for the fees already paid and the difference will be assessed. For example, if the fee amount per square foot was $4.00 when the original permit was issued and, at the request for renewal, the fees are $4.25 per square foot, 25 cents per square foot would be due.

What if the permit is extended? Are fees due?

If the permit does not expire and is extended with no lapse, no fees are due. However, as a matter of practice, after the permit has been extended twice, fees will be recomputed, and the difference charged.

To where should member agencies send fee payments?

Checks should be made payable to "San Joaquin Hills Transportation Corridor Agency" or "Foothill Eastern Transportation Corridor Agency" according to the zone for which the fees are collected. All payments and the corresponding remittance forms should be collected by member agencies and sent directly to our trust company at the following address:
