

You are invited to attend a free seminar hosted by the City of Newport Beach:

SIGNIFICANT CHANGES TO THE 2016 CRC

Instructor: Paul Armstrong, P.E., C.B.O.

An overview of significant changes to the 2016 California Residential Code (CRC). The course examines the significant changes to the CRC. It will be conducted in a workshop format with the lecturer and attendees participating in an active discussion. The course is appropriate for experienced and novice code users.

DATE:
Wednesday, March 8, 2017

TIME:
8:30 AM – 4:00 PM
Check in: 8:00 AM - 8:30 AM

LOCATION:
City of Newport Beach
Civic Center Community Room
100 Civic Center Drive

RSVP:
Email Debi Schank at dschank@newportbeachca.gov
with names of attendees

CEUs:
Participants will accrue
0.6 ICC Preferred Provider CEUs

2016 CALIFORNIA RESIDENTIAL CODE
CALIFORNIA CODE OF REGULATIONS
TITLE 24, PART 2.5
Based on the 2015 International Residential Code®
California Building Standards Commission

Paul Armstrong is the Vice President, Public Works Southern CA for CSG Consultants, Inc. He has worked for a number of private municipal consulting firms and in that capacity served as the Building Official for the Cities of El Monte, Signal Hill and Whittier. Prior to working for private firms, he worked for the International Code Council and the International Conference of Building Officials and was the initial ICC Vice President of Architectural and Engineering Services. He also served as the drafting secretariat for the 2000 International Residential Code. He represented the model code organizations to many federal, state and local agencies and is recognized as a lecturer on many code related topics. He serves in a contract capacity for the City of Anaheim for ARTIC, Anaheim Convention Center Expansion, and the Disneyland Resort projects. He is an author of the 2016 Significant Changes to the CBC and CRC books. Mr. Armstrong graduated from California State University, Long Beach and is a Professional Engineer in the State of California and a Certified Building Official.