“Background Map” is required to see streets and other features.

NDC recommends you select Background Map, District Lines (where available), the two Labels options, and Landmarks.

If you want population numbers on the precincts and census blocks, also click the “Labels” option with the down arrow next to it and see the instructions in the next screen.

Use the “hand” to move the screen around, the “paint brush” to select precincts or blocks, and the “eraser” to undo any assignments.

Click on the plan title to change the name and to enter a description of your plan (see the previous slide).

Zoom in and out using the + and – buttons.

Click on the appropriate circle to choose which district to assign the next precinct or block you click.

Click “District Details” to see running totals for the district as you create it (see the next slide).

As you draw your map, details of the precinct or census block you click on will appear here. (To see the data for the district you are currently drawing, see the “District Details” option on the left side of the screen.)
