Proposed classes are not guaranteed to be scheduled or run. It is up to the discretion of the schools and the overseeing Coordinator to plan schedules; and classes must meet the minimum required number of participants (at least 3). Ensure all class information is correct before submitting. Classes that are cancelled may not be brought back the following session.

To add more classes, please fill out another form with that class' information.

Once completed, please return to dmoore@newportbeachca.gov
